

E-Commerce Website put down the sale of T-Shirt after protest.

21- Apr-2015

After giving quick reaction from our end, both Ecommerce companies Ask me bazaar & Amazon have deleted the product from their sites and stop the sale of aforesaid T-Shirt.

We have registered our protest mainly through calls, and through some letters as well to manufacturing company called 'Enquote Merchandising Solutions'. Apart from this reportedly one delegation (Including Some Sadhaks and Lawyers) from Kanpur was also went to this company's address, where they found that the owner of the company was absconding!
